

Crescent City Corvette Club

presents

The National WWII Museum Tour

including

The D-Day Museum

IMAX Movie, "Beyond All Boundaries"

and

Stage Door Canteen Dinner Show

All are invited.

Over the years we have been many places, done many things, and had lots of fun throughout the south. We've been as far west as San Antonio; as far east as Ashville; as far north as Gatlinburg; and as far south as Corpus Christi. We've never stayed home to enjoy our own city and one of the finest museums our great nation has to offer.

On Saturday, June 12th, we will meet at 10:30am at the Basin St Station Visitor Information Center, 501 Basin Street, New Orleans, LA. www.basinstation.com. We will have lunch (somehow, you knew that) at Lucy's Retired Surfer's Bar and Grill, 701 Tchoupitoulas St. www.lucysretiredsurfers.com.

After lunch, we will drive to the National WWII Museum complex www.nationalww2museum.org for a self guided tour of the D-Day Museum. Take your time. There are three floors to view and absorb. Some of us may even remember.... There are also several gift shops. Across the street is The Solomon Victory Theater where we will see the 5:00pm showing of the IMAX movie, "Beyond All Boundaries", narrated by Tom Hanks.

At 6:00pm we will be seated for dinner in the Stage Door Canteen Dinner Theater featuring, "A Tribute to the Big Bands of the WWII Era". Dancing is encouraged.

I have reserved 50 seats for the IMAX Movie and the Dinner Theater, so please register early. After those are gone, I can't be sure of getting additional seats.
